

Paper / Workshop Submission

- Send your submission to david.wood@ecu.edu.au
- Retain a printed record of your completed submission
- Deadline for submissions is Friday 18th August

Presenter(s) Details

Name of presenter/s	Flinders Multifaith Chaplaincy - Geoff Boyce, Dr Carl Vadivella Belle, Ven, Thich Thong Phap, Kylie Doherty, Dr Abul Farooque
Email - primary presenter	geoff.boyce@flinders.edu.au
Phone number - primary presenter	08 8210 2347
50 words about each presenter	Flinders Multifaith Chaplaincy is a community of colleagues working together within the rubric 'nurturing spirit, building community' in ministry and service to the Flinders University community. Geoff Boyce is the Uniting Church chaplain. A former secondary school teacher, Geoff has been chaplain at Flinders for 9 years. Dr Carl Vadivella Belle commenced as Hindu chaplain at the beginning of 2006. He is Vice-President of the SA Hindu Society and has been an editor of the international magazine "Hinduism Today" and a career diplomat in the Australian Embassy in Malaysia for four years. Ven. Thich Thong Phap is an ordained Buddhist monk in the Vietnamese Zen tradition. He commenced as Buddhist chaplain at the beginning of 2006. Kylie Doherty is a mature age student studying Behavioural Science. She commenced as Pagan chaplain in 2005. Dr Abul Farooque is a retired academic in Asian Studies and Education and commenced chaplaincy at Flinders in 2005.

Paper or Workshop Details

Are you offering a paper <input type="checkbox"/> or a workshop <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Title of paper/workshop How it is for us - multifaith chaplaincy at Flinders University.

Abstract 100 - 150 word	The workshop will comprise a sharing of the journeys of each of the Flinders Multifaith Chaplaincy team and the insights each have gained since joining the team at Flinders. Four principles of multifaith ministry will be proposed for discussion.
Equipment requirements	ohp
If you require more than 1 hour, please justify*
Any other comments	This workshop builds on a workshop presented by the Flinders Multifaith Chaplaincy team to a conference of hospital, prison and other chaplaincies in SA.

* Please note that sessions are timetabled for one hour and it may not be possible to allocate more time